

Surrey Branch Xmas Shoot Competitions

Turkey Shoot - PL7 with a black patch applied to the reverse side, somewhere in the white scoring area.

You get to choose the general area, but you don't get to apply the patch.

The PL7 is then fixed to the target frame, the correct way round and you get 10 shots to try to hit the hidden spot - 20 minutes to shoot the comp.

If no-one hits the spot, then the distance from the centre of the spot to the centre of the nearest bullet hole is measured.

Winner gets a Wooden Trophy that has been carved into a flattish Turkey, and a bottle of wine. 2nd & 3rd places earn a bottle of wine.

Folder Target - PL7 which you fold in two - this can be either horizontal, vertical or on the diagonal.

Only 5 shots are fired and, upon unfolding, you hope to see 10 scoring holes - 15 minutes to shoot the comp.

Try not to hit the actual fold as this will only show 1 hole. Winner gets a wooden trophy with a Sterling Silver engraved name plaque & bottle of wine.

Runners up get a bottle of wine.

Pocket Pistol - PL7 shot at 10m. 10 shots all to count. Stipulation, the pistol must be of the type with a central hammer and no sighting system - turn-off barrel pistols are usually used - 20 minutes to shoot comp. Winner gets a Pistol Shield Trophy and a bottle of wine. Runners up get, you guessed it, a bottle of wine.

Christmas Pudding Trophy - this is shot on a specially printed target (A3 size paper) which features 5 Xmas puddings with only 3 scoring rings - 10, 9 and 8.

5 shots only, 1 shot per pudding. If there are 2 shots on a pudding, then the highest value one scores. Scoring is standard NRA type, touching the line counts as the higher score - 15 minutes to shoot the comp.

Winner gets a patinated Bronze Pudding on an African hardwood base - this is to KEEP for ever. We only have 2 original real Bronze puddings left. Future prizes will be a faithful copy of the original, produced on a 3D printer, and mounted on a hardwood base. Competitors who have previously won a Bronze Pudding are not eligible to shoot this again, until we have the plastic versions available.

There are no wine prizes for this comp, 2nd place runner up gets a medium sized edible Xmas Pudding, 3rd place position receives a small edible Xmas pudding.
